Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 27. to Saturday May 1. 1736.

Whitehall, April 27.

THIS Evening the Marriage Ceremony of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales with her Highneſs the Princeſs of Saxe Gotha, was performed in the Royal Chapel at St. James's, with the greateſt Magnificence and Splendour.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 29th Day of April, 1736.

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,
Lord Chancellor, Duke of Chandos,
Lord Preſident, Earl of Pembroke,
Lord Steward, Earl of Scarbrough,
Lord Chamberlain, Earl of Selkirk,
Duke of Richmond, Earl of Ilay,
Duke of Montague, Earl of Halifax,
Duke of Newcaſtle, Earl Fitz Walter.

WHereas in the Act of Uniformity which eſtabliſhes the Liturgy of the Church of England, Proviſion is made for ſuch Alterations in the Prayers for the Royal Family, as from Time to Time ſhall become neceſſary, and be directed by lawful Authority: — It is thereupon this Day ordered by his Majeſty in Council, That in the Morning and Evening Prayers, in the Litany, and in all other Parts of the Publick Service, as well in the occaſional Offices, as in the Book of Common Prayer, where the Royal Family is appointed to be particularly prayed for, The following Form and Order ſhall be obſerved, viz. Our gracious Queen Caroline, their Royal Highneſſes Frederick Prince of Wales, the Princeſs of Wales, the Duke, the Princeſſes, and all the Royal Family.

And his Majeſty doth ſtrictly charge and command, that no Edition of the Common Prayer be from henceforth Printed, but with this Amendment; and that in the mean Time, till Copies of ſuch Edition may be had, all Parſons, Vicars and Curates within this Realm, do (for the preventing of Miſtakes) with the Pen correct and amend all ſuch Prayers in their Church Books according to the aforegoing Direction. And for the better Notice hereof, That this Order be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and ſent to the ſeveral Pariſhes; and that the Right Reverend the Biſhops do take Care that Obedience be paid to the ſame accordingly.

Whitehall, April 29.

This Day the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor and the Court of Aldermen of the City of London, waited on his Majeſty at St. James's, to congratulate his Majeſty upon the Marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales with the Princeſs of Saxe Gotha, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Grafton Lord Chamberlain; and Mr. Baron Thomſon the Recorder made their Compliments in the following Speech.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

THE Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen of the City of London, moſt humbly entreat your Majeſty's Permiſſion to congratulate your Majeſty upon the Marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales.

Your Majeſty's paternal Care for the Welfare of your Subjects has been evident upon all Occaſions; and your Majeſty's approving this Alliance for his Royal Highneſs with a Princeſs of the Illuſtrious Houſe of Saxe Gotha, confirms the Regard which your Majeſty has always ſhewn for the Support of the Proteſtant Intereſt and the Liberties of Europe; and is a freſh Inſtance of your Majeſty's indulgent Concern for the preſent and future Proſperity of your People.

All your Majeſty's Subjects have Reaſon to be ſenſible of their Happineſs under ſo mild and gracious a Prince; as they are in the full Poſſeſſion of all their Rights and Liberties, Property ſecured, Commerce flouriſhing, Induſtry encouraged, Peace and Tranquility at Home and Abroad; as this their preſent Felicity is owing to your Majeſty's Protection and Influence, and the Proſpect of the Continuance of it to your Wiſdom and Goodneſs; Theſe your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects beg leave to expreſs their Joy and their Acknowledgements with the moſt grateful Hearts, and to aſſure your Majeſty of their moſt dutiful and affectionate Regard to your Royal Perſon; of their zealous Endeavours in their Sphere for the Support of your Majeſty's Government; and that they eſteem themſelves under the higheſt Obligations to do all in their Power, that your Majeſty's Reign may be eaſy and happy to your ſelf, as it is an ineſtimable Bleſſing to your People.

To which his Majeſty was pleaſed to make this moſt gracious Anſwer.

I Thank you for your Congratulations on this Occaſion, and for the Zeal and Concern that you ſhew for the Proſperity and Support of my Family and Government.

They all had the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

Then they waited upon Her Majeſty, being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Grantham Her Majeſty's Lord Chamberlain, and Mr. Baron Thomſon made their Compliments as follows.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

THE Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen of the City of London moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the Marriage of His Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales.

As your Majeſty is the Fountain from whence ſo many Bleſſings flow to his Majeſty's Subjects, they have Reaſon to approach your Majeſty with the utmoſt Gratitude and Veneration.

Your Majeſty's promoting the Eſpouſal of his Royal Highneſs to a Proteſtant Princeſs, eminent for her Religion, Virtues, and Accompliſhments, ſhews how much your Majeſty has at Heart the true Happineſs of his Royal Highneſs, and the Welfare and Proſperity of this Nation.

Your Majeſty is a glorious Inſtance of the many beneficial, and of the laſting good Conſequences of ſuch an Alliance. Happy is it for the Princeſs ſhe has ſo bright a Pattern to imitate: Happy will it be for the Prince and the People, her following ſo good, ſo great an Example.

There is nothing to wiſh, but that Heaven would beſtow on this Royal Pair, a Progeny in every Reſpect reſembling thoſe of your Majeſty; and that your Majeſty may have perfect Health, and live to ſee with Joy and Comfort all the deſireable Effects of this happy Union.

Her Majeſty was pleaſed to receive their Compliments very graciouſly, and they all had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

Then they were introduced to their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Baltimore, Lord of the Bedchamber to his Royal Highneſs; and Mr. Baron Thomſon made their Compliments, firſt to his Royal Highneſs, in the following Manner.

May it pleaſe your Royal Highneſs,

THE Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen of the City of London, moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Royal Highneſs on your Marriage with her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales.

'Tis an infinite Pleaſure to me, Sir, that I have the Honour to expreſs to your Royal Highneſs the joyful Sentiments of theſe his Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects upon this happy Occaſion.

'Tis with great Satisfaction they obſerve your Royal Highneſs's Felicity accompliſhed in the moſt delightful Manner to your ſelf, and at the ſame time yielding the moſt agreeable View to all his Majeſty's Subjects, of the Continuance of the many Bleſſings they enjoy to future Ages.

They intreat your Royal Highneſs's Permiſſion to offer their moſt ardent Wiſhes for your Royal Highneſs's Health and Proſperity, that you may be bleſs'd with a numerous Offſpring, that you may have the Satisfaction to ſee them truly repreſenting your Royal Highneſs, with the moſt benevolent Diſpoſition, with the tendereſt Humanity, Aſſertors of Liberty and Friends to Mankind, with all other thoſe Princely Virtues which give a Luſtre even to your Dignity, and which make your Royal Highneſs the Favourite of the People, and the hopeful Proſpect of the Britiſh Nation.

Then to her Royal Highneſs, as follows.

May it pleaſe your Royal Highneſs,

AS all his Majeſty's Subjects have now an Intereſt in your Royal Highneſs's Welfare, theſe preſume to tender their moſt hearty Wiſhes for your Royal Highneſs's Proſperity, and that you may have all the Joys this Life can yield.

And as your Royal Highneſs cannot fail to complete the Happineſs of your Royal Conſort, and to attract the moſt tender and affectionate Returns, May Heaven for ever continue the bliſsful Union of your Hearts, and all your Years roll on with the moſt perfect Harmony. May your Royal Highneſs have the Satisfaction of yielding many endearing Pledges of your mutual Love; and may they be endued with all thoſe amiable Qualities and Perfections which accompliſh your Royal Highneſs, and render you the Object of univerſal Admiration.

His Royal Highneſs was pleaſed to make the following gracious Anſwer.

My Lord and Gentlemen,

I Thank you for your kind and affectionate Addreſs to me and the Princeſs; it is a great Pleaſure to me, the Joy you ſhow on this happy Occaſion. You may be aſſured of my conſtant Regard for the Trade of the City, and for the Welfare of the whole Nation.

They all had the Honour to kiſs their Royal Highneſſes Hands.

Copenhagen, May 1, N. S. The Departure of his Daniſh Majeſty for Holſtein is fixed for To-morrow. Mr. Finch, his Britannick Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary to the Court of Sweden, arrived here on the 29th paſt from Stockholm, and propoſes to continue his Journey towards England in a Day or two. The Deputies of Hambourg having ſigned a Convention for adjuſting the Differences between this Court and that City, were admitted Yeſterday for the firſt Time to an Audience of the King, who received them very graciouſly.

St. James's, April 26,

This Day the Baron d'Uffel, ſent from the Duke of Saxe Gotha, to attend the Marriage of the Princeſs Auguſta his Siſter, had his firſt private Audience of his Majeſty; to which he was introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Kt. Maſter of the Ceremonies.

He had afterwards a private Audience of the Queen; to which he was introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Grantham, her Majeſty's Lord Chamberlain, and conducted by the Maſter of the Ceremonies.

April 27. He had a private Audience of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales; being introduc'd by the Maſter of the Ceremonies.
